and Mr. J. E. Spencer delivers a bill, entitled, An act authorising Solomon Scott, late sheriff of Queen-Anne's county, to complete his collection; which were severally read.

The house, according to the order of the day, proceeded to the second reading of the bill to authorise and empower the president, managers and company, of the Baltimore and Frederick-town turnpike road to collect tolls on the bridge erected over the river Monocacy; and, on motion by Mr. Chapman, the following amendment was carried: Strike out the word "further" in the 7th line of the 2d page.

On motion by Mr. Worthington, the following amendment was agreed to: To the end of the bill add, " provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be construed to authorise the stockholders of the said Baltimore and Frederick-town turnpike road to receive from the whole tolls of said road, including the tolls which may arise from said bridge, more than the sum of ten per centum per annum over and above all charges and deductions whatever, and as soon as the tolls on said road, including the tolls on said bridge, shall neat to the said stockholders the sum of ten per centum per annum from the first investment of their monies in said stock, over and above all charges and deductions whatever, that then, after such time, the said bridge shall be and remain free from all tolls whatever, in the same manner as it has been considered before the passage of this act."

The question was then put, Shall the said bill pass? The year and nays being required, appeared as follow:
